

have you had your mammogram?

healthy changes
everything.®

routine screenings can save lives.

October is breast cancer awareness month. Encourage the women in your life to talk to their doctor about when, and how often, they should schedule a mammogram.

Early detection is the best defense against breast cancer.

For more information, visit cdc.gov/cancer/breast.

BlueShield
of Northeastern New York

